

SHIKI CLOCK

This clock uses paper molding technology. Since it's very light, you can securely attach it to the wall with just push pins, without needing large screws. Since it has no numbers, you can use it either vertically or horizontally. You can use both ways. It's flexible.